

SAN ANTONIO TOUR OPTIONS

GROUP DINNER & CRUISE THE FAMOUS SAN ANTONIO RIVER WALK

(6:00pm-9:00pm) or lunch (11:30am-2:20pm)

Your evening begins with an authentic Mexican Dinner in a beautiful location, sit amongst the colorful umbrellas, and enjoy the serenity and romance of the San Antonio River Walk. This picturesque setting is an ideal location to catch up with your friends. After dinner you will board your exciting riverboat cruise. You will be amazed at the dazzling lights that make the River Walk not just famous but fabulous at night. Don't miss out!

SAN ANTONIO SIGHTSEEING & ALAMO TOUR

(9:00am -2:00pm)

Your day begins with a riding tour of some of the city's wonderful sights. You will visit the Queen of Spanish Missions to see a documentary film and explore the grounds. Your tour also includes a visit to the "El Mercado"; the Mexican Market, and the San Fernando Cathedral. You will then venture to Alamo Plaza where you will view the award winning IMAX movie presentation "The Price of Freedom" which chronicles the story of the battle of the Alamo. With fresh images and the story in your mind, you may then proceed to the Alamo itself. See where it all actually happened and walk the hallowed grounds of history. You will have plenty of time to visit the Alamo and have lunch on your own and souvenir shopping around the Alamo Plaza before returning to the hotel.

GROUP DINNER AT THE RANCH

(6:00pm-9:30pm)

Put on your boots, we're headin' to the country for dinner and entertainment at a working Longhorn Cattle Ranch and Pecan Orchard. Enjoy a Hay Ride over to feed the Longhorns & Llamas before strappin' on the feed bag and enjoying a traditional cowboy supper of smoked brisket or chicken, pinto beans, potato salad, drop biscuits, etc. Western style entertainment follows dinner before heading out to the campfire for hot coffee, cold ice cream homemade fruit cobbler and a real cowboy storyteller. This is real Texas fun!

NATIONAL MUSEUM OF THE PACIFIC WAR IN FREDERICKSBURG TOUR

(9:00am-4:00pm)

Renowned for its rolling vistas and beautiful natural serenity, the Texas Hill Country will capture your heart and attention throughout every moment of this intriguing tour. You'll arrive in the quaint German community of Fredericksburg. There you will find historic homes and shops, wooden sidewalks, old-tyme soda fountains, and uniquely Texan curios. You will have plenty of time to visit the museum which is the world's leading institution dedicated to preserving the history of WWII in the Pacific. Also, of interest are the Pacific Combat Zone and the Nimitz Museum. You will have time to browse the myriad shops, have lunch on your own, and stop at the vintage ice cream parlor. Bring your cameras – this is a great tour!

RANDOLPH AIR FORCE BASE TOUR & LUNCH

(9:00am-3:00pm)

Randolph Air Force Base is known as the "Showplace of the Air Force" and is the home of various Air Force activities including the 12th Flying Training Wing; the only unit in the Air Force conducting both pilot instructor training and combat systems officer training. Your tour will provide a wonderful overview of the Base; highlights include a "windshield tour" of the base, a visit the Aerospace Physiology area, and one of the flying units. A visit to the Static Aircraft display will be subject to availability at the time of the tour. Your tour will end with a special lunch in the Officer's club on base (included in the price of the tour), and a Memorial Service at the Chapel. This is going to be a great tour of the "Showplace of the Air Force!"

Please note: photo identification will be required.